Summary of the Event	The event started with the introduction of Alumnus members, G. Phanider (Senior Manager of Qentelli) had welcomed their batchmates along with their respective class teachers to the event. They had arranged a panel discussion of their struggles in their life followed with suggestions and guidance. They had pointed out few basic questions that raise in every Electrical Engineer and discussed among the panel and shared their views in the event. To list a few questions along with their answers – How to face the interview? Answered by Sivateja (AVP – Broadridge, Hyd), stated – you must have a confidence and what you know and what you don't know, must be told clearly without any fear on face. Do you believe in LUCK? For this question, Anand Sai (Project Manager, Tech Mahindra, Hyd) told that, during their times Question paper SET was introduced by JNTUH and he got a very tough SET question paper. He told that, though he had answered the question paper for less than pass marks, but with some LUCK he had passed that subject. Even, Sivateja also shared same incident and she too got passed by God's grace. The next Question was – What made them to be Successful? For this question Pradeep (Senior Manager – Samsung Electronics) answered by mentioning DISCIPLINE is very important role in ones' human life. Being Discipline helps the students to – obey the guidelines of faculty, concentrate on subject, set some short-term goals and long-term goals. For the same question NVNS Srinivas (Architect – Qualcomm Inc.) added few more points, mentioned participating in extracurricular activities, YOGA and meditation can improve the concentration level as well as discipline. How to get an idea on to have STARTUP? Regarding this question B. Suman (Co-Founder of Plexap TRU Pvt. Ltd.) answered by giving himself as an example, that he tried different Startups in different fields. And for getting an idea of Startup, an individual must be innovativeness in their thinking and problem-solving approach. The event was concluded with welcome bouquet given to Dr. Jandhyala N. Murthy (Director), Dr. J. Praveen (Principal) and Dr. B. Phaneendra (HOD-EEE) followed by Felicitation to their Class Teachers.
